“Agwada is a fully realized musician who brings his creativity to whatever genre he plays. He came of age at a heady time in American music, when various musical styles co-existed. “Eyes of the City” is at once homage to this musical potpourri and a welcome return to the present of this gifted artist”

– Beverly Zeldin-Palmer Illinois Entertainer August 29th 2008

“Any lover of modern blues will find plenty to enjoy here”

----- Norman Darwen - Blues Art Journal

“Eyes of the City is a very enjoyable album and gives a clear picture of Vince Agwada as an artist in his own right, not just the summation of those that came before him...”

- ---John McCormick Illinois BluesBlast August 28, 2008

“Vince has put together one hell of a Rockin Blues mix on this just under 78-minute 13-track CD “Eyes of the City”. Vince is a master at his trade of being one of the best Blues Guitarists in the game... shredding out some of the most smoking Blues tracks to come out of Chicago from any non-label artist we’ve received over the past ten years “

- ---John & Clarence of BluesWebRadio August 27th 2008

“All in all, “Eyes of the City” is an outstanding effort. Agwada conducts a master class in blues guitar before our very ears. “Eyes of the City” earns a strong recommendation”

---- Rating: 4.5 Stars (Out of 5) Wildy's World August 15th 2008

“Eyes of the City is ill beyond belief. For those who stopped paying attention to Chi-Town blues, better get back with it. Vince is the real thing as many of us have known for years. Amazing work... Nothin' but soul”
